I'd like to become a Dakshana Scholar and hopefully attend IIT because it is my deep desire and aim to become an IITian. In my childhood, I have heard a lot about IITs, the life of IITians and the quality education provided there. I want to become a rich engineer and to serve nation. I belongs to rural area. IITians are considered a very great personality here. So I can brought up my parent's name in our area. Dakshana is providing IIT-JEE coaching to the talented and needy students. It is a very noble deed to help the talented ones. By joining Dakshana foundation I can make my way to the IIT. Nobody from our village and also neighbouring villages has yet selected in IITs. I want to become the first one. If I get a rank in the Top 500s, then it will be a great achievement for me. Undoubtedly the all I will do in JEE exam is due to Dakshana so I can never forget the role of of Dakshana in making my career. I have always secured good marks and Top Ranks till my metric. So I am very confident about my selection. But without the guidelines and coaching by Dakshana, it is very much hard to me. I can fulfill my dreams only through IIT. I know very well that lots of students appear in JEE and all of them are talented ones. But I will do my best to be selected. Dakshana has provided a platform from where I can go to my target only with hard-working, because I have gotten the right direction already. Top 500, sometimes seems very much hard ~~to reach~~ but never impossible to me. Someone has said "All power is within you. You can do anything". This line motivates me a lot and returns my confidence whenever I get depressed. Engineers are everywhere but IITians are very rare. And I always want to become the rare one.
