I'd like to become a Dakshana Scholar and hopefully attend IIT because Dakshana foundation is an organisation, as I know is very much helpful for the talented students those who are poor. In our country, there're many coaching institutes taking a high amount for IIT-JEE coaching. In this way maximum seats are taken by the students belonging to rich families.

IIT is an institute to which there is aim for every students of India. Everyone wants to get chance to study engineering through IITs. But in thousands or lakhs of meritorious students only 10000-12000 get selection. Thus, without coaching it rather difficult.

Now for Dakshana, the students those who are belonging to the poor family. The poor students get free coaching in this organisation by any coaching institute. To my I feel that any one can keep trust on Dakshana foundation if he/she works hard.

That's all from me.
