I'd like to become a Dakshana Scholar and hopefully attend IIT because it gives a golden chance to become IITan. Dakshana is the pathway to IIT who have its potential. I want to become an IIT Engineer as my aim and my father wants me to be this.

Belonging to the middle-class family it becomes very difficult pay privately the fees of IIT. But Dakshana gives me a chance to save the money and achieve something higher.

To learn and share the knowledge will become more easy if I become Dakshana scholar. To meet the persons of high mentality level is a privilege for me. It is said that "Have the higher only if you do higher. Hard work is a duty of student which I can do more better in IITs. I would like to become IIT scholar not for myself but I also have wish to do something uncommon with my sincerity for my country.

Being a Dakshana scholar I will get platform to show my potential and talent. I will be fortunate if such happens.

I am inspired by the great men who have nothing but knowledge which has taken them on the pinnacle of success. Like them I also want to follow them and make my life useful. Elaborating the treasure of knowledge can be useful to overcome economical challenges.

My aim to become Dakshana scholar is if fulfilled I can inspire my family members and will try to send them in that field. If I become IITan I will go to foreign land to learn and earn money.

It is my dream that my mother also want to see it me so. So I will complete my mother and father's dream definitely. I will get there friends of knowledge to whom I can share my thoughts.

So from all of this I can say that Dakshana is path and IIT institution is my goal where I have to fight with challenges with the tool of my hardwork, sincerity and knowledge.
